What is HTML & CSS?

HTML & CSS is the backbone of all websites! Knowledge of them is a necessity if you are interested in things like web development, creating marketing emails, or even blogging! It's easy to learn and our workshop was designed so that everyone (even beginners) can do it.

No fancy programs are needed, just Notepad and a web browser!

Workshop Style

👉 Hands-on project based learning.

★ Learn from industry leading professionals.

👥 Small ratio of students to instructors.

💡 Social and collaborative learning.
